

Expert Evidence See generally Consolidated Practice Directions and Circulars

1. the parties have leave to adduce expert evidence at the trial of the action;
2. by [date], the [party]:
 - (a) serve on each other party a copy of the report of any expert witness, the substance of which the party intends to rely on at the trial; or
 - (b) disclose in writing to each other party the substance of any expert evidence that the party intends to adduce at the trial;
3. by [date] each party file and serve an index of the reports of any expert witness that the party intends to tender as evidence at trial in accordance with 2005 DCR rule 45E;
4. by [date] each party file and serve an updated index of the reports of any expert witness that the party intends to tender as evidence at trial in accordance with 2005 DCR rule 45E;