

Scott Schedules See generally Consolidated Practice Directions and Circulars

1. by not later than [date], the plaintiff serve on the defendant by email a draft schedule in the form of [Schedule [A, B, C, D, E or F as appropriate - to the Consolidated Practice Directions and Circulars or in the form attached to this application] ("Scott Schedule") relating to the claims in paragraphs XX and YY of the Statement of Claim dated [date], having completed columns [];

2. by no later than [date], the defendant serve on the plaintiff by email a further draft of the Schedule having duly completed columns [];

3. by no later than [date], the plaintiff either:

(a) file and serve the Schedule; or

(b) file and serve an application for a directions hearing, together with a document stating that the parties have conferred to resolve the outstanding issues relating to the Schedule, setting out the outstanding issues and annexing the latest draft of the Schedule.