

DISTRICT COURT OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA

NOTICE TO PRACTITIONERS

Interlocutory Applications in Civil Actions Listed for Trial

Practitioners will be aware that, on 21 September 2023, the Court reissued its Circulars to Practitioners – Civil (CPC).

Practitioners' attention is drawn, in particular, to CPC 2.5.5 which reads:

Any interlocutory applications made within 12 weeks of first date allocated for trial will be dealt by the TLJ or trial Judge. Any party lodging such an application must, upon filing a chamber summons and selecting a hearing date in the ECMS, notify the Court in writing that the application should be listed before a Judge on an urgent basis. The notification to the court should be by a letter lodged in ECMS against the action.

If you lodge an application in an action listed for trial, please ensure that CPC 2.5.5 is complied with, so that the Court can list the application before a trial list judge as soon as possible.
